RISING LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

INSPIRE. INFLUENCE. LEAD. TRANSFORM.

Leadership Western Australia's Rising Leadership Program is designed to challenge and transform developing and existing leaders into influencers who inspire and motivate others to achieve great things.

Leadership is a journey of self-discovery and self-development that never ends. Recognised worldwide leadership specialist, John Maxwell, says that "People buy into the leader before they buy into the vision" and the Rising Leadership Program will help you to develop your leadership and create a sustainable and practical vision.

“This is just the beginning of expanding my life without placing limits on myself. The program has given me such a greater understanding of who I am that I almost feel like a new person.”
