

INSPIRE. EMPOWER. CREATE. CONTRIBUTE.

LeadAbility is an experience-based Course designed to empower people with a disability, or those in the sector, who have a demonstrated potential to lead and generate change.

Through our Courses at Leadership WA, we instil the courage, skills and tenacity in our leaders to create stronger communities.

WHAT TO EXPECT

A series of interactive, engaging activities, presentations, and workshops, LeadAbility will take you on a journey to inspire and motivate you to achieve great things.

On completion of the LeadAbility Course you will emerge with new frameworks and tools to help you along the path to becoming a stronger, higher performing leader.

Delivered by Leadership WA and sponsored by the Department of Communities (Disability Services), LeadAbility will help you:

- Learn strategies for engaging and leading teams effectively
- Grow your networks and share ideas with a broad range of people
- Discover how to apply leadership skills to benefit the workplace, community and society

WHO CAN APPLY?

The LeadAbility Course is open to people with a disability and people in the disability sector with demonstrated potential to lead and generate change.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

This experience-based course is for people who would like to:

- Nurture leadership skills
- Understand themselves as a leader
- Lead teams
- Learn about corporate and community leadership
- Contribute to a more inclusive future

YOUR LEARNING JOURNEY

LeadAbility is structured around a series of carefully designed leadership experiences to ensure learning is individual, meaningful and relevant.

Experiences focus on leadership learning through engagement with diverse leaders, self-exploration and dynamically structured group discussion.

Each experience runs for a full day and includes:

- In-depth exploration of a key leadership focus
- Opportunity to share personal stories and explore issues
- Collaborative leadership action on community projects

OUR FACILITATORS AND SPEAKERS

Leadership WA's facilitators are selected for their skills as presenters and their academic and practical experience in the corporate, government and not-for-profit sectors.

DRIVE SOCIAL IMPACT

When you graduate from the LeadAbility course you are invited to join a strong network of today's leaders making a real and meaningful difference in the community. This active and supportive Community of Practice creates opportunities for the graduates to continue learning and collaborating through:

- coordinated and shared efforts for change and social impact
- sharing of knowledge, skills and ideas
- sharing of outcomes and resources
- peer support network
- discussing developments and responses in the sector.

APPLY NOW

To apply, complete the LeadAbility course application form at www.leadershipwa.org.au or contact our Leadership Development team on 08 9369 6777 or admin@leadershipwa.org.au.
